1. On January 20, Emboff shared reftel points regarding Sweden's humanitarian assistance to Haiti with Swedish Ministry For Foreign Affairs Americas Desk Officer Sara Ramierez. Ramierez told Emboff that Sweden has provided a total of $27.1 million in post-earthquake humanitarian assistance to Haiti, and that Sweden will continue to review future assistance to Haiti. She also provided an approximate breakdown of an immediate payment of $14.3 million, which raises Sweden's total assistance to $27.1 million as of January 20, 2010, and does not include Sweden's previously reported $60.7 million contribution to the UN Central Emergency Response Fund (CERF). The immediate $14.3 million payment will be allocated as follows:

- $4.4 million to the International Organization for Migration (IOM) to be used as "cash for work" efforts for clean-up operations, tents, psychological support, hygiene, water and sanitation;
- $3.4 million to Unicef to provide basic health care to women and children, improve access to water and sanitation and provide nutrition to infants;
- $1.8 million to Action contre la Faim (ACF) to provide access to water and sanitation,
- $1.8 million to Oxfam to provide access to water,
- $1.8 million to World Vision (WV) to provide health care,
- $1.1 million to Medical Emergency Relief International (MERLIN) to provide general health care and prevent epidemics.

2. Post will continue to monitor Sweden's assistance to Haiti.
